PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 108th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 150

WASHINGTON, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 21, 2004

No. 2

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. SIMMONS).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
January 21, 2004.

I hereby appoint the Honorable ROB SIMMONS to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

J. DENNIS HASTERT,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

Lord God, creator of life, author of our inalienable rights, every single human person is to be valued and revered. Some people in life mean more to us than others. In this Nation, the office of Presidency bestows upon a single person an awesome responsibility. The President personifies our loyalty and our strength as a Nation. He is called to unify our diversity and resources for the lasting good of this country and for the betterment of the world community.

Today we pray for George W. Bush, the 43rd President of the United States of America. Bless him, his cabinet, staff advisors, and especially his family. Be his source of wisdom and planning and of understanding the people's needs and courage in difficult times.

May all in the executive branch of government work in cooperation with this Congress to achieve what is best for our Nation at this time. This we ask in Your holy name. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.

Pursuant to clause 1, rule I, the Journal stands approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentlewoman from Connecticut (Ms. DELAURO) come forward and lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Ms. DELAURO led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

PRESIDENT BUSH LEADS EFFECTIVELY, HONORABLY, AND WITH DISTINCTION

(Mr. FOLEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FOLEY. Mr. Speaker, I see there are a few Democrats on the floor today; they are busy preparing their "I hate George Bush" speeches for the day. We finished last night with a message from the President of the United States about the hopeful optimism this country has and the things that we can do together if we only stop bickering and start working towards our common goals.

The war on terrorism is his single focus; and since September 11, our homeland has been safe. Liberating the world has been his hallmark, and today we can claim that Libya is now negotiating with the United States. North Korea is finally talking about putting aside their hatefulness. India and Pakistan are joining together for conversations that are hopeful and helpful for solving the world's problems.

This President has led effectively, honorably, and with distinction.

At the end of the State of the Union speech, the minority leader went on to describe how reckless, basically, this President has been. I disagree vehemently and strongly. I applaud our President. I applaud the state of the Union. The economy is growing stronger, unemployment is reducing itself and we are finding ourselves in a better place, thanks to his leadership.

God bless this great Nation and, as the chaplain said, God bless our President.

HONORING MICHAEL GALE

(Mrs. CAPITO asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. CAPITO. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Michael Gale, an exceptional student in my district in West Virginia, and one of my constituents.

Michael was recently awarded one of 12 George Mitchell Scholarships for postgraduate studies at universities in Ireland and Northern Ireland. Michael is the first West Virginia resident ever to receive this prestigious award and will study at the National University of Ireland in Galway.

The Mitchell Scholarship was established by an endowment from the Irish Government in 1998 and is administered by the U.S.-Ireland Alliance. The House has supported funding for the Mitchell Scholarship both in 2003 and 2004. The British Government also provides support for this program.

I offer my congratulations to Michael Gale, an exceptional young West Virginian, and the other 11 winners of the Mitchell Scholarship and wish them all the best in their studies in Ireland.

HONORING THE LIFE OF HAROLD J. "TEX" LEZAR, JUNIOR

(Mr. BURGESS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. BURGESS. Mr. Speaker, it is my sad duty this morning to report on the
